

Dear Friend,

This is a very special year for LDSG, Inc. It is with great pride and tremendous gratitude that we announce our 5th Annual Golf Outing. LDSG, Inc. will again partner with Fox Chase Cancer Center to bring this event to you on Monday October 13, 2008 at the Green Valley Country Club located in Lafayette Hill, PA.

Here in our fifth year, we are especially excited to again work with individuals and businesses that have so generously supported this worthwhile event in the past. As in previous years, the entire proceeds from this outing will benefit Fox Chase Cancer Center. The donation will be presented in remembrance of Jack Christmas, a pillar of the community, who succumbed to brain cancer in 2005. In this milestone year, we at LDSG, Inc. have dedicated ourselves to drawing in more supporters and increase the contribution to Fox Chase Cancer Center to help battle this devastating disease that impacts so many lives in our community. This is a most fitting tribute to Jack and the community at large.

Included in this mailing is a brochure detailing your options for participation and making contributions. LDSG, Inc, a 501 (c)(3) designated organization, was established with the purpose of administering this event. This means your sponsorship contributions are tax exempt.

We all look forward to this being another very special outing.

Sincerely;

Steve Marino
President and Co-Founder of LDSG, Inc.
